Get to Zero CO2 Conference

November 17, 2008

Montpelier, VT

Vermont is a leader in sustainability. Our government, many of our businesses, educational institutions and non-profits have modified their purchasing and waste management practices. We have the opportunity on November 17th to hear about emerging technologies, prioritizing projects, managing inventories & operations and optimizing our ROI at Get To Zero CO2 at the Montpelier City Hall Lost Nation Theater.

Dr. Kevin Lyons, Director of Purchasing and an expert in Supply Chain Archaeology for Rutgers University will deliver a workshop delivering hands-on solutions to expanding our proficiency in sustainability.
